MOVEMENTS OF MAIL STEAMERS

The steamer Alameda gets away for the Coast this morning at nine o'clock. She will carry a good list of passengers and a fair amount of freight. Passenger traffic to the coast does not seem, however, to be quite as heavy as it was during the earlier part of the summer so it is fair to presume that there will be some people left in Honolulu to welcome back the travellers when the winter season reopens. The World's Fair has been the cause for many of the departures this summer but there are a good many tourists headed this way now so travel in this direction ought to be picking up. A party of Shriners is due on the Ventura and it is hoped that many of the delegates to the Knight Templars' convocation at San Francisco will be induced to journey to this city.

After the departure of the Alameda, passenger steamers will be a scarce article around this port until next Tuesday when a whole fleet will begin to put in an appearance. People who came from the coast with the assurance that mail steamers arrived from and departed for the coast on an average of once in four days are finding out that that blissful condition of affairs exists only in the minds of the statistician and others who deal with averages instead of plain cold facts. This month at least the steamers seem to leave long intervals of quiet and then descend upon this port in force. Last Friday two vessels arrived from the coast. After twelve days' interval two more—the Ventura and the Doric will arrive. The Ventura will get in next Wednesday and the Doric Wednesday or Thursday. Next Tuesday the Sierra will arrive from the Colonies. The O. & O. liner Coptic from the Orient should arrive Monday night and both steamers will get away for the coast on the 23rd. The Sierra is the faster boat so the mail will undoubtedly be dispatched on her. The following day, Wednesday, the Manuka will arrive from the Colonies and the Miowera will come in from Victoria on the 27th.

TWO SAILING VESSELS IN

Two sailing vessels arrived in port yesterday morning. The first was the American barkentine Wrestler, Captain Nielson, twenty-two days from Gray's Harbor with a load of lumber. She had a most uneventful passage. Hardly had the Wrestler been docked when the tug was called out to bring in the American barkentine Echo. The Echo, which is commanded by Captain Young, is out fifty-one days from Iquique with 1,100 tons of nitrates for the Hawaiian Fertilizer Company. The voyage was devoid of interest although the wife of the captain walked overboard in the night while the vessel was lying in Iquique harbor and was drowned.

Cambronne Off Port.

The French bark Cambronne, Captain Richard, was sighted off Diamond Head at six o'clock last night and came to anchor in the offing a little after seven. She sailed from Cardiff with a cargo of coal on April 9. She was spoken on April 18 in latitude 46 North, longitude 11 West, about 500 miles west of Brest, France. She will be towed into port this morning. After discharging her cargo for this port she will proceed to Portland, Oregon, and thence to Queenstown.

Hawaiian Due Today.

The American-Hawaiian liner Hawaiian should be in this afternoon with a general cargo from New York via San Francisco and Puget Sound ports. There are already awaiting her arrival 2207 tons of sugar at the Railway wharf. She will take in all 4000 tons from this port, the remainder being sugar from the Oahu plantation. The balance of the steamer's cargo will be taken on at Kahului and Hilo.

Shipping Notes.

The schooner Charles Levi Woodbury sailed for Hilo yesterday afternoon.

The Argyle has finished discharging her cargo of oil and will get away for San Francisco at six o'clock this morning.

The U. S. S. Iroquois has returned from Pearl Harbor where she left the marines for target practice. Practice was had with the steamer's guns also.

The latest fish story from the south is to the effect that a shark bit off a blade of the Claudine's screw. The officers of the Claudine and the Mauna Loa would make a heavy bid for the Ananias Club's big prize.

The bark Mohican will be out thirty-nine days today from this port for San Francisco. She has a big load of sugar and a number of passengers. She has evidently run into the same belt of calms that delayed the Marston.

The "yacht" Alameda, for her officers prefer this classification to that of ferry boat, may not be detained this trip on account of docking. Captain Dowdell and the Chief Engineer are both of the opinion that the work necessary can be done in time to let the steamer depart at the usual hour.
